

MERAKI-KALA YATRA FESTIVAL

VENUE: ICT MUMBAI
DATE: MARCH 27TH-28TH

Kala Yatra Event

Date: March 27th-28th

Venue: ICT Mumbai,

Objective: To celebrate art and creativity through various workshops and sessions.

Day 1: March 27th :

Pottery Workshop:

Participants learned the art of pottery, creating unique clay pieces under the guidance of experienced instructors.

Techniques such as shaping, moulding, and decorating were taught to participants.

Caricature Session:

Artists provided live caricature drawing sessions, capturing the essence of individuals in a fun and exaggerated manner.

Participants had the opportunity to sit for caricatures and take home personalized artworks.

Glass Bottle Painting:

Attendees explored the art of painting on glass bottles, transforming ordinary objects into decorative pieces. Various painting techniques and designs were demonstrated, allowing participants to unleash their creativity.

Keychain Painting:

A session dedicated to painting keychains offered participants a chance to create small, portable artworks. Different themes and styles were explored, providing participants with a wide range of design possibilities.

Collaborative Canvas Painting:

A collaborative effort where participants worked together to create a large-scale canvas painting. Each individual contributed their ideas and artistic skills, resulting in a vibrant and diverse masterpiece.

Day 2: March 28th:

Acrylic Sheet Painting Workshop:

Participants learned techniques for painting on acrylic sheets, experimenting with colors and textures. Emphasis was placed on layering and blending to achieve desired effects on the transparent surface.

Glass Bottle Painting (Continued):

Building upon the previous day's session, participants continued to explore glass bottle painting, refining their skills and experimenting with new designs.

Keychain Painting (Continued):

Another opportunity for participants to engage in keychain painting, further honing their techniques and creating additional personalized artworks.

Collaborative Canvas Painting (Continued):

The collaborative canvas painting project continued, with participants adding layers and details to the evolving artwork.

The sense of teamwork and creativity flourished as participants worked together to complete the masterpiece.

Note: Art and Craft Exhibition was also organised at the Marble Hall ICT Mumbai Campus.

Conclusion: The Kala Yatra event provided a platform for art enthusiasts to come together, learn new skills, and express their creativity. Through a diverse lineup of workshops and sessions, participants explored various art forms and techniques, fostering a sense of community and camaraderie. The event was a resounding success, inspiring participants to continue their artistic journey and share their passion for creativity with others.

- Prerana Awchare (PR Secretary TA)

