

Professor (Dr) R. R. Deshmukh

M.Sc., B.Ed., Ph.D.

RegistrarProfessor of Physics
Department of Physics

REG/RRD/980

June 11, 2019

TO WHOSOEVER IT MAY CONCERN

Institute of Chemical Technology (ICT) has undergone the following changes in its history since 1933 :

1. Established as University Department of Chemical Technology (UDCT) on October 1, 1933 of University of Bombay (now Mumbai).
2. It was popularly known as University Department of Chemical Technology (UDCT) or Bombay University Department of Chemical Technology (BUDCT).
3. It was renamed on January 26, 2002 as University Institute of Chemical Technology (UICT) of Mumbai University and it was abbreviated as MUICT.
4. This Institute was separated from Mumbai University and converted in to Deemed to be University by the MHRD under Section 3 of the UGC Act of 1956 on September 12, 2008 and the name was changed to Institute of Chemical Technology (ICT)
5. The students who were admitted between 1934 till September 2008 were granted the degrees by University of Mumbai till 2012.
6. ICT was granted Elite Status and Centre of Excellence on par with IITs, IISc and IISERs in the State Assembly on April 20, 2012 by the Maharashtra Government
7. In November 2017, National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) graded ICT with A++ (CGPA of 3.77 out of 4)
8. ICT was declared Category I Deemed to be University status on February 12, 2018
9. During NIRF 2019 ranking ICT is placed 4th in Pharmacy, 12th in Engineering, 15th in University and 27th among all
10. All ICT courses are NBA accredited.

REGISTRAR